

HEALTHCARE RISK MANAGEMENT: SOLUTIONS FOR IN-HOME CARE ORGANIZATIONS

The RCM&D Healthcare Practice understands the unique challenges that home care organizations face in today's rapidly changing environment. Our healthcare risk management solutions can help identify and mitigate risks that affect patient safety, team health and wellness, and enterprise risks as a whole. We will work directly with your team to identify your exposures and implement strategic solutions.

Helping Mitigate Risk in a Complex Environment

Risk Assessments

Our risk management professionals can perform an overall risk assessment using a multipronged approach. We are also available for focused evaluations based on your organization's needs. Following the engagement, you will receive a report with recommendations and resources to help enhance patient safety and reduce organizational risk.

Risk Program Management

Functioning as a true partner, we can assist with pre-underwriting practice assessments and advisory sessions as well as placement of resources and programs. We will collaborate with you on an ongoing basis to reduce risk.

Consultative Assistance

We are available to serve as a continuing resource to assist with a variety of concerns, such as policy and procedure review or development, and investigation and documentation of unanticipated events.

Customized Research

We are well-versed in healthcare risks and have a keen knowledge of industry trends, along with access to exclusive resources. Leveraging this expertise, we can assist you with customized research regarding specific patient safety and risk concerns, best practices and risk mitigation strategies.

Educational Programs

We are available to present unique and informative educational programs to enhance your organization's knowledge of risk management. Our tailored programs cover a wide range of topics, including documentation, policy and procedure development, safety in the home environment, travel safety and telemedicine.

Solutions Tailored to Your Needs

Our goal is to form a collaborative partnership with you to meet even your most complex risk and insurance needs. Our team is experienced in healthcare risk management, risk control and insurance. We have leveraged our knowledge of today's challenges to develop tailored solutions to help you mitigate risk.
