

A UNISON RISK ADVISORS Company

RISK CONSULTING SOLUTIONS HOSPITALITY SERVICES

Does your organization have the experience and staffing to manage the wide range of risks that threaten the health and livelihood of your business?

From criminal acts to bedbugs and customer falls to fires, hospitality organizations must navigate a shifting landscape of perils that can affect the successful operation and continuation of their business. Societal changes mean that risks are constantly evolving and placing ever-greater demands on organizations to identify, prioritize and manage these risks.

The SISCO Difference

The SISCO Risk Consulting team has the experience, expertise and tools to assist our hospitality clients in managing risk.

Security assessments to ensure your property has addressed gaps in its security procedures and features.

Water intrusion assessments as well as water and mold mitigation planning.

Workplace violence prevention assessments and employee training in workplace violence response actions.

Emergency planning services, including life safety assessments, critical incident, business continuity and disaster recovery plan development and testing.

Slip and fall assessments for both interior and exterior areas, including tribometry analysis.

OSHA compliance assessments and training for employees in dining services, maintenance, housekeeping, guest services/reception, and laundry.

Operational liability risk assessments for special risks such as pools, fitness centers, banquet services, food servers, and sports and activities.

Property protection systems assessments, such as automatic sprinkler systems and fire pumps, fire alarms, and kitchen hood extinguishing systems.
